
On Sunday, April 11 at 2 PM, our speaker David Hirsh will be talking about the antisemitism of the left and its entanglement with anti Zionism.

David Hirsh is a Senior Lecturer in Sociology at Goldsmiths, University of London. He is the founding editor of the Engage website, which organised opposition to the campaign for an academic boycott Israel in the UK and which opposes the antisemitism which is associated with it. https://engageonline.wordpress.com/ His first book, 'Law against Genocide', based on his PhD thesis, was a sociological account of international humanitarian law. In 2018 he published 'Contemporary Left Antisemitism', about the story in the 21st Century of the mainstreaming of antisemitism on the British left https://www.routledge.com/Contemporary-Left-Antisemitism/Hirsh/p/book/9781138235311 If you look at his university web page and scroll down to the 'publications' tab, you will find links online to lots of things he has written. https://www.gold.ac.uk/sociology/staff/hirsh/ You can find him on Facebook https://www.facebook.com/dhirsh1/ and Twitter @DavidHirsh.We will hear from David and discuss the risks of similar problems here in Canada.
