Message from Cantor Green

In May 2025, my first cousin was diagnosed with a fast-growing lymphoma in his jaw and throat. After months of his documenting his medical and life journey, treatments stopped working, and he entered hospice. We organized a family Zoom meeting—not merely for an update on his status, but for the profoundly unhappy task of saying goodbye. He expressed his deep appreciation, and we simply shared joyous, humorous, happy memories.

On July 7, 2026, he wrote in his journal: “What has stayed with me most is something simple: I did not realize how much goodbyes would matter. I knew people would care, but I did not understand the depth of it until I saw their faces and heard their voices. Saying goodbyes to my extended family reminded me that the relationships we build over a lifetime do not disappear with the turn of a card. They stay alive in the collective memories of all the people who carry them forward. I felt their love and connection in every call and every visit. It helps me feel more connected to the life I am still living.”

Not long after writing those profound words, his journey came to an end. His reflection on the transition from this life to the next stays with me, especially as we gather for this service of remembrance.

We don't all get the chance to say goodbye. Sometimes the loss of a loved one is sudden, unexpected, and particularly tragic. Sometimes it is called “a blessing” after a long or devastating illness. There are many possible circumstances.

The truth is that we can say goodbye at any time. And we can also evoke the memories with which we are blessed, to say shalom to the family members to whom our tradition teaches vayei-aseif el amav—we will be gathered unto our people and reunited. They continue to inspire our strength and our deeds.

Whatever form of loss brings you to this sacred moment of Yizkor, the relationships you built remain unbroken. Whether your goodbyes were spoken in person, implied through your thoughts and deeds, or you say them now in the quiet of the sanctuary and in the intentionality of reciting the Yizkor prayers, nobody mourns alone.

תְּהִינָה נִשְׁמוֹתֵיהֶם צְרוּרוֹת בְּצִרוֹר הַחַיִּים – may their souls be bound up in the bonds of life eternal.

And may we all be blessed with beautiful memories and long life.

Cantor Jason Green

A prayer for those blessed with living parents

Almighty God, while those who have lost their parents and their dear ones call to mind those who have gone to their eternal rest, at this solemn moment I raise my eyes to you, the Giver of Life, and from a grateful heart, thank You for Your mercy in having preserved the life of my beloved (father, mother).

May it be Your will, O lord my God and God of my ancestors, to bless them with health and strength, so that they may be with me for many years to come. Bless them even as they have blessed me, and guard them even as they have guarded me.

In return for all their love, affection, and the sacrifices which they have made for me, may I bring them joy and lighten their cares. May it be my privilege to help them in every way that lies within my power; may I learn to understand and recognize the duty I owe to them, that I may never have cause to reproach myself when it is too late.

Shield my home from all sorrow. May peace and harmony and Your divine spirit ever reign within its walls. Keep me true to you and to all with whom I come in contact so that I may do Your will with a perfect heart.

IN MEMORY OF THOSE WHO DIED DURING THE PAST YEAR

We lovingly recall the members of our Congregation who have recently passed away. They have a special place in our hearts. We pray this day that all who have sustained the loss of loved ones in the year gone by be granted comfort and strength.

Exalted, compassionate God, comfort the bereaved families of Kehillat Beth Israel Congregation. Help all of us to perpetuate the worthy values of those who are no longer with us, whose names we respectfully recall today. May their memory endure as a blessing. And let us say: Amen.

Exalted and Merciful God, grant perfect peace in Your Presence among the holy and pure whose light shines as the brightness of heaven:

- To the souls of all our departed whose memories we have just recalled in our memorial prayers;
- To the souls of the departed of our holy congregation, Kehillat Beth Israel and their families that we remember here today.
- To the souls of our brothers and sisters, the soldiers of the Israel Defense Forces, who gave up their lives for the sanctification of Your Holy Name, in defense of our people and Land; they were swifter than eagles and stronger than lions;
- To the souls of all those killed by terrorists;
- To the souls of the soldiers of Canada and the Allies, who stood against our enemies;
- and to the souls of the six million martyrs of Israel: men, women, and children who were murdered, gassed, lost, or buried alive, for the sanctification of Your Holy Name.

They have all gone to their eternal home. We remember them and pray that their souls rest in Paradise. Master of Compassion, shelter them forever. May their memory endure as an inspiration for deeds of truth, loyalty, and kindness. Thus may their souls be bound up in the bond of eternal life. The Eternal One is their inheritance; remember their sacrifice and may they rest in peace. And let us say: Amen.

“Praised be the Eternal,
our God, the Ruler of the Universe Who created you in judgment, Who maintained and sustained you in judgment, and brought death upon you in judgment; Who knows the deeds of every one of you in judgment, and Who will hereafter restore you to life in judgment. Praised be the Eternal Who will restore life to the dead.”

O God, full of compassion, Who dwells on high, grant true rest upon the wings of the Shechinah (Divine Presence), in the exalted spheres of the holy and pure, who shine as the resplendence of the firmament, to the soul of _____ who has gone to his/her/their eternal rest; may his/her/their place of rest be in Gan Eden. Therefore, may the All-Merciful One shelter him/her/them with the cover of Gods wings forever, and bind his/her/their soul in the bond of life. The Lord is his/her/their heritage; may he/she/they rest in his/her/their resting-place in peace; and let us say: Amen.

PSALM 121

A song of ascents

1 I lift up my eyes to the mountains—
from where does my help come?

2 My help comes from the LORD,
the Maker of heaven and earth.

3 God will not let your foot slip—
God who watches over you will not slumber;

4 indeed, he who watches over Israel
will neither slumber nor sleep.

5 The LORD watches over you—
the LORD is your shade at your right hand;

6 the sun will not harm you by day,
nor the moon by night.

7 The LORD will keep you from all harm—
God will watch over your life;

8 the LORD will watch over your coming and going
both now and forevermore.

In the rising of the sun and in its going down, we remember them; In the blowing of the wind and in the chill of the winter, we remember them; In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, we remember them; In the rustling of leaves and in the beauty of autumn, we remember them; In the beginning of the year and when it ends, we remember them; When we are weary and in need of strength, we remember them; When we are lost and sick at heart, we remember them; When we have joys we yearn to share, we remember them. So long as we live, they too shall live, for they are now a part of us as we remember them.
